

IDA World Congress: Media Credentials

Media must be credentialed in order to access the 2017 IDA World Congress. Please complete the following form to apply for media credentials, and email it to Ann Seamonds at seamonds@seamonds.com

Please refer to the guidelines for receiving media credentials, information about eligibility and the credentialing process. Online credentialing will end on October 11, 2017; after that date, all credentialing will be done on-site. At the World Congress, there will be a specially designated area in the registration area where media may pick up their credentials if they have already submitted a request or be credentialed on-site.
